Accused British Osteopath Takes Drug Overdose

LONDON (AP)—A jury in the Old Bailey court retired today to consider its verdict on lurid vice charges against Dr. Stephen Ward — while the defendant lay unconscious in a hospital from an overdose of drugs.

Court officials said that Justice Sir Archie Marshall would not sentence Ward, if convicted, until he is well enough to be present.

Ward still was in a coma five hours after admission to the hospital. Doctors and nurses were administering oxygen in an effort to bring him around.

Christine Keeler, alleged by the prosecution to be the star attraction in a circus of prostitutes run by Ward, was stunned.

Hospital authorities indicated that Ward was expected to recover.

The presiding judge completed his summing up of the evidence and his instructions to the jury after cancelling Ward's bill of $3,000 pounds $8,400 and instructing the police to "take the normal steps to ensure greater security" of Ward.

The five charges against Ward are all misdemeanors although they carry a possible total penalty of 25 years in prison.

Ward, 50, an osteopath and artist, was found unconscious this morning by a friend, Noel Howard Jones, in whose Chelsea district flat he had spent the night.

A resident of the building said he understood Ward had left "lots and lots of notes."

Inflation Danger Seen In Spurt Of Living Cost Index

By DARDEN CHAMBERS
A P Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—New government statistics invite fears that inflation may be straining at the leash again.

Businessmen seem agreed that it probably won't get loose. But they concede there has been more price raising in recent months than there has been in a long time.

The government cost of living index for June took its biggest spurt in months, reaching a record high of 106.6 per cent.

This specific figure, strongly influenced by an unusual increase in sugar prices, can't be taken too seriously by itself. But businessmen are studying the index for what it reveals about the overall pattern.

Food Prices Steady

For years that pattern has been deflationary, many businessmen say. There has been a buyers' market, with stiff price competition, since about 1958.

During this period, wholesale price indices slipped downward and retail averages held about steady. The cost-of-living index inched upward, but this was almost exclusively because of higher charges for services (haircuts up 12 per cent, hospital care up 32 per cent, etc.), shelter and taxes. Food prices have been almost steady for several years.

Real estate prices kept rising longer, partly because of property taxes, but by last year, they too had about flattened out.

U.S. Steel tried unsuccessfully to boost its prices bringing the historic clash with President Kennedy in the spring of 1962.

This spring, the steel industry tried again but on a smaller scale. This time it worked.

Shortly afterward, aluminum producers gingerly raised some prices. Some brass and copper

Quake Refugees To Get Shelters

SKOPJE, Yugoslavia (AP)—The Yugoslav government rushed plans today to set up a barracks city to house the survivors of Skopje until a new city is built.

Dynamite and bulldozers continued leveling the ruins of last Friday's earthquake.

Officials said they plan to erect cheap but bearable shelters around the city.

More than half of the 270,000 citizens of Skopje have been moved to other communities.

Others were still trickling away out of the area until the danger of a typhus epidemic is past.

Six days after the quake hit Skopje, the count of recovered bodies stood close to 1,000. Authorities said at least 700 more persons were missing and presumed dead.

Employes Taxed

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—The Mobile City Commission has adopted a one per cent wage tax on persons employed in the city. The vote was 2-1.

Coast Guard Finds Ohio Man's Body On Traverse Bay

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—The body of a Cincinnati, Ohio construction official missing since last Saturday was found Tuesday by a U.S. Coast Guard helicopter.

The body of George Ten Eyck, 40, was spotted by the helicopter about 100 yards north of the beach on Grand Traverse Bay where his fishing boat was found beached Saturday.

Ten Eyck and his son, Thomas, 3, had gone fishing on the bay while vacationing at nearby Omena.

The search for the youngster continues.

Kent Units Told To Halt Pollution

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Three Kent County governmental units have been given until June 1, 1965 to abate pollution of two streams.

In letter from Loring F. Oeming, executive secretary of the Water Resources Commission, the Kent County Drain Commission, Paris Township and the City of Wyoming were named as violators of a state act which makes communities responsible for keeping sewage out of waterways.

The WRC warned the governmental bodies four years ago to clean up Buck Creek and Heybour Drain. If the warning isn't heeded, fines of up to $500 a day may be levied.

Detroiter Escapes At Ionia Prison

IONIA (AP)—Police today sought a Detroit man who escaped from the Ionia State Reformatory where he was serving a 7½ to 20-year sentence for assault.

Officials said Alfred Eads, 23, apparently jumped off a truck that was returning a group of inmates from a work detail outside the reformatory Tuesday.

The administration, faced with a continuing balance of payments problem, will continue to discourage any general price increases.

General Hurley Dies In Sleep

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, World War II ambassador who claimed that U.S. State Department policy contributed to the Communist conquest of China, is dead at the age of 80.

Hurley died in his sleep Tuesday night at his home, apparently of a heart attack. He had not been ill.

The tall, gregarious soldier and diplomat began government service as a private in the Indian territory volunteer cavalry in 1902.

Before he quit in 1945 as ambassador to Chiang Kai-shek's government and retired from the Army, he had been secretary of war in President Herbert Hoover's cabinet and a diplomatic troubleshooter for President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Three times after resigning his China post, Hurley, a Republican, sought election to the U.S. Senate from New Mexico. Each time he was defeated by a Democrat.

Hurley's wartime role in China got back in the news in March of 1962, when the State Department released its secret China papers of 1943.

The papers included a report from Hurley to Roosevelt saying that Chiang Kai-shek has grave doubts about attending the Yalta conference with Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin because of Stalin's desire to communize China.

Hurley quit in protest when President Harry S. Truman implemented the Yalta agreement, under which Russia entered the war against Japan. He called the agreement a blueprint for a Communist victory in China.

Peking Rejects Bomb Test Ban

TOKYO (AP)—Red China officially rejected the U.S.-British-Soviet nuclear test ban agreement today in an attack on the Soviet government indicating Peking may be near a formal break with Moscow.

A government statement distributed by the official New China news agency said the Peking regime would not adhere to the pact initiated in Moscow last week because the agreement's main purpose was to bar Red China from obtaining nuclear weapons.

The statement described the partial test ban pact as a "dirty fraud" and said it was designed to prevent all the threatened peace-loving countries, including China, from increasing their defense capability.

"The indisputable facts prove," it said, "that the policy pursued by the Soviet government is one of allying with the forces of war to oppose the forces of peace, allying with imperialism to oppose socialism, allying with the United States to oppose China, and allying with the reactionaries of all countries to oppose the people of the world."

The WRC warned the governmental bodies four years ago to a clean up Buck Creek and Heybour Drain. If the warning isn't heeded, fines of up to $500 a day may be levied.

In an airport speech, Freeman reminded Poles that President Woodrow Wilson "was one of those who insisted most strongly" on creating an independent Poland after World War I.

Freeman Spending 3 Days In Poland

WARSAW (AP)—U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman arrived from Moscow today for a three-day visit to Poland, second country on his tour of Communist Eastern Europe.

Freeman reminded Poles that President Woodrow Wilson "was one of those who insisted most strongly" on creating an independent Poland after World War I.

"I don't think we are definite enough in any situation," he added. "It can be stopped and if it has to be stopped by force, let's get it over with."

"This year-after-year stuff in the cold war is not my way of thinking," he added. "I may be wrong but that's the way I feel."

The father then went to his room for several hours. His wife, Mary, 57, sobbed: "Oh, Freddie, Freddie..."

Freddie, known as Freddie to his friends, had been a military man for seven of his 24 years.

He tried civilian life briefly after six years in the Marines, but had difficulty finding a job and decided military life was his best bet.

Planned Retirement

Larion joined the Army 15 months ago, planning to retire at half-pay at age 37 to start a civilian career.

At home last March, he told his family, "Somewhere there is a bullet marked for me."

Freddie's four sisters and brother gathered at the family home in this southern Lower Michigan town of 3,761.

One sister, Mary Blanche Gedney of Algoma, Mich., recalled a time when her husband was out of work and Freddie, just out of the Marines and still not working, got a check from the Marines for some reason and gave her $100 "to help out."

The military barred followers of the ex-dictator from the presidential election.

"If he had a dime, he'd give it to you," she said.

Bishop Noa Will Bless The Fleet

The Most Rev. Thomas L. Noa, D.D., ordinary of the Catholic Diocese of Marquette, will return for the Blessing of the Fleet on Sunday, Aug. 4 after an absence of two years due to illness and commitments. Bishop Noa has always taken an active interest in the Blessing of the Fleet ceremonies and will enhance the event next Sunday with his presence.

Bishop Noa will ride in the parade to the harbor along with the visiting priests and monsignori. After blessing the watercraft present for the event, the Bishop will give a short address to the crowd. He and the priests will be guests at the cottage of Mrs. Adeline Janowski after the ceremony for the buffet luncheon.

"Arrangements for the Blessing ceremony are about completed," says Fr. Conrad Dishaw, and this year it is expected that a large number of pleasure craft will be on hand for the event. All yacht clubs on Lake Michigan have received an invitation to be present. The fishing craft in Delta and Schoolcraft counties are expected to be present since it is for them especially that the ceremony was first established.

Those who wish to attend the Mass at the Fatima Shrine next to St. Peter's Church in Fayette, will have that opportunity at 11 a.m. Those attending the Field Mass are asked to drive their automobiles directly to the church grounds. This will be a High Mass and Miss Sharon Guertin, a member of St. John's Parish, Garden, now a student at Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C. will sing. The Rev. Matthias Fischer, director of Kolping House in Chicago will deliver the sermon.

Fords Donate To Democrats

WASHINGTON (AP)—Henry Ford II, chairman of the Ford Motor Co. board of directors, and two brothers contributed $15,500 to Democrats in the 1962 congressional campaign, Congressional Quarterly says.

Henry Ford gave $3,000 to the Democratic National Committee and Benson Ford and William C. Ford each gave $2,500, according to a CQ survey of political contributions and expenditures filed with the House Clerk.

The survey showed each brother also contributed $2,500 to the Citizens for Kennedy-Johnson.

Henry and Benson Ford also gave $500 each to the Republican campaign of Alvin M. Bentley for congressman-at-large in Michigan, CQ said.

Their mother, Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, gave $1,000 to the National Republican Committee, which financed congressional campaigns in all states, the newspaper reference organization said.

The report said 52 persons in Michigan gave $500 or more to Republican causes in 1962, with Bentley's $35,913 contributions the largest. Relatives of Bentley gave $8,000, CQ said.

Neil Staebler, a Democrat from Ann Arbor, defeated Bentley.

CQ said contributions and expenditures listed with the House clerk totaled $18,404,115 and estimated this is only about a fifth of actual 1962 campaign spending.

It said money raised in state campaigns is not reported and in many states candidates do not report all their costs to federal officials.

Michigan candidates for Congress, for example, may report their finances to the House clerk or have committees formed which need only file accounts in county seats.

Bentley filed accounts showing $92,391 raised and spent, while Staebler filed a statement reporting expenditures of $4,800. Most of Staebler's campaign funds were raised and spent by a committee which did not file a Washington report.

Dr. Cameron Says Community Needs All-Purpose Clinic

The people of an area will be best served in the field of mental health when communities have all-purpose clinics where there can be early evaluation and treatment of the mentally disturbed, Dr. R. R. Cameron, superintendent of Newberry State Hospital, told the Escanaba Rotary Club on Tuesday.

The ideal situation would be to have enough clinics so no citizens would be more than 50 miles from a mental health center, he said.

"The way it is now in most cases the illness must develop to the point where no one can tolerate them, and then they are sent off somewhere else. This is like letting a common cold develop into pneumonia."

Improved Program
The child guidance clinic and branches in the Upper Peninsula and the efforts toward programs for the mentally retarded children would "not be diluted" but expanded in the development of an all-purpose clinic, Dr. Cameron noted.

Dr. Cameron described the advances being made at Newberry State Hospital, including the recruiting of new and younger doctors and staff reorganization.

"We are building slowly and solidly," he said. "We will have the finest and highest type staff in any hospital in Michigan or the nation when our objective is attained," Dr. Cameron added.

The number of patients in the state hospital is being reduced as the program is strengthened. There are now seven defined services, all appropriately staffed. There are now treatment rooms where staff people can sit down and talk privately with patients.

Load Reduced
Emphasis is being placed on acute and intensive treatment, the population of the hospital has declined from over 1,800 to now slightly over 1,600, and the hope is that this number of mentally ill can be reduced to under 1,000.

There is need in this state and in the nation for the development of treatment programs for the mentally retarded child, he said. The hospital at Newberry has facilities for 385 children maximum, since it is a hospital for the retarded as well as the mentally ill.

Newberry State Hospital does not have a ward for alcoholics and Dr. Cameron indicated that while he is not unsympathetic toward the concept of alcoholism as a sickness, there is the greater need to do something for "children and others."

Forgotten Ones
Strengthening of programs for evaluation of the mentally and emotionally disturbed should be

Two New Housing Ordinances Up In Detroit Council

DETROIT (AP) — An anti-discrimination housing ordinance and a homeowners' rights ordinance were introduced formally at the Detroit city council's meeting Tuesday.

The first would prohibit discrimination in the sale or rental of property because of race or religion. No date was set for action on the proposal.

The second would guarantee owners the right to sell or rent their property as they see fit. It was presented with petitions bearing 44,000 signatures by the Greater Detroit Homeowners Council.

The measure must be approved by the council by Aug. 22 or submitted to a popular vote at the next regular election, which would be in 1964.

Stunt Car Rams Fence At Clare; 7 Persons Hurt

HARRISON (AP) — Seven persons were injured when a stunt car ran into a fence at the Clare County Free Fair Monday night.

The car was one of a group of "dare-devil" riders performing on the race track.

The Clare County sheriff's office said none of the injured was badly hurt though four were taken to Clare General Hospital.

Hospitalized were Roxanne Brown and Carl Brown, both of Flint, and Mrs. Freda Kipp and Mrs. Mona Bliss, both of Harrison.

Treated at the scene were Judy Hoskey and Gregor Miller of Flint and Jo Allen Scholl, of Mount Morris.

Sixth Grade Girl Enrolls In College

BENTON HARBOR (AP) — A Benton Harbor girl named Patience was so impatient for higher education that she enrolled in a community college shorthand course—in spite of the fact she is only in the sixth grade.

Patience Armstrong, 11, Tuesday finished a six-week shorthand course at Benton Harbor Community College. And, as expected by educators, her grade in the course was an "A."

Patience's teacher, Mrs. Doris Badgely, said, "She was one of my best students. In some areas she was the very best."

"Shorthand was something I'd never taken before," said Patience. "I just decided to take it."

Some English words, such as abstemious, facetious and arsenious, contain all the vowels in proper sequence.

Romney For Governor

Gov. George Romney will visit the U.P. State Fair on Aug. 14 and he may get through the afternoon without anyone suggesting that he should be president—the way things have been going lately.

The Romney presidential "boom" has simmered down to a very low boil, except for the efforts of Dallas businessman George A. Zimmerman, who keeps sending out stacks of literature with red, white and blue "Ride with Romney" stickers, suggesting that Michigan's governor should be the next president. Zimmerman's last report said that there are now 48 Romney For President Clubs in 35 cities and 16 states.

Governor Romney's recent appearances at the Governor's Conference at Miami resulted in press coverage in which praise seems to cancel out criticism about evenly and leave the issue rather limp. Tom Shawer of the Detroit Free Press reported that reactions to Romney's performances at Miami ranged from "surprisingly bad" to "excellent."

A reporter for a New York newspaper, said Shawer, thought Romney "spoke too much in golden generalities." One from Philadelphia thought he should have great vote appeal. This sort of political scattershot never kills any ducks.

Romney went to Miami one of the best known and most watched governors in the assembly, although he's a political freshman serving his first term in public office. He was watched specially because his name has been mentioned, along with those of other eligible Republicans, for the presidential nomination. He didn't advance a presidential cause for himself overtly but everything he says is filtered through the presidential process by the national press and results in kaleidoscopic reactions ranging from exuberance to dismay.

Back home in Michigan Republican National Committeeman John B. Martin called for a Michigan delegation to the 1964 Republican Convention committed to the support of Romney for president.

In a fancy demonstration of hair splitting, Martin said he didn't mean by his suggestion to make Romney "a favorite son" for the presidential nominee, because that would mean making Romney a candidate (and he's said he isn't a candidate). Martin just wants Romney to be the Michigan delegation's favorite, not its favorite son. The suggestion confirms that the daisy days of summer are here.

Romney got most reaction at Miami, rather predictably, with his rap at parts of President Kennedy's health and welfare program. The Michigan Legislature has passed, and Governor Romney has signed, a bill making Michigan eligible for the Aid to Dependent Children of the Unemployed as part of the social security program. But the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare says that the Michigan Act doesn't meet its standards and it won't send Michigan any money to distribute in an ADC-U program.

Lots of Michigan Republicans think that if good old Soapy Williams was still governor or if John Swainson was still in the governor's office that the same bill might win approval of HEW Democrats in Washington. Romney persuaded the governors to go on record favoring legislation that would enable states to seek judicial review in disagreements with federal agencies. The Democrats infer that a simpler solution would be to elect Democrats throughout.

The summer doldrums in politics and the early frost on the Romney for President drive delight Michigan Republicans. They want him around for the next gubernatorial campaign and think that re-election and a record of accomplishment in state office will be a better stepping stone to serious consideration for presidential nomination than a premature trial on the Washington obstacle course after once around on the Lansing fairway.

Wealth Without Work

Admittedly there is a wide difference between being trained for specific jobs in particular new factories and being given skills in a broad field that may or may not offer quick job opportunities.

Nevertheless, it was something of a jolt to read that a $3 million federal-local program of job training for 20,000 jobless New York youths is looked on skeptically by many of the affected youngsters themselves.

Their chief complaint, disclosed in random interviews: They don't care to study or train. They want jobs today. Not just any jobs, but work like operating a crane or bulldozer, which draws high pay.

These lads talk, in other words, as if somehow they could miraculously acquire instant skills. They want none of the drudgery of learning, of battling up the ladder. Open the golden door now!

They should talk to some of the men who once had good jobs in West Virginia mining but lost them. They now drive hours to and from training classes, getting a paltry subsistence wage as they prepare for "new jobs" that may or may not materialize in auto repair, woodworking, machine shops and the like.

Lots of those who are upgrading their skills in the South are in fact marked for definite jobs in industries moving in.

But the nearly universal testimony of industrialists and economic experts who have observed the South's economic growth is that these workers generally put out effort as if their lives depended on it. They spend no time grousing about not being crane operators.

What has fed the delusions of these New York youngsters, many of them presently unemployable school dropouts, that they can, in effect, join the union and see the world?

In the old days we could blame it on Hollywood movies which catapulted their heroes from bottom to top in half a reel. But you don't see these any more even on the late, late show.

The explanation today may be deeper and wider. Our society in many ways encourages people not to wait for anything. There are shortcuts to everything — to maturity, to college diplomas, to howeowning, to success.

Many kids at the young end of the teen-age scale have material goods that would have thrilled their grandparents at 50. Some who don't have these things "take" them. One must keep up. Others sit around waiting for their magic chance at youthful affluence.

Some less well off sectors, like parts of West Virginia and the South, have not yet been caught up in this "here today and have it all tomorrow" mood that afflicts so many places. That may explain why they still believe in laying hard labor on the line.

But even the worst pockets of poverty and joblessness in New York are close to the great displays of modern-day economic riches. And the poor can very quickly pick up from the more fortunate the happy notion — spurred by many parents — that what one sees and likes one should have.

Edson In Washington

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of New York runs one of the smartest bipartisan radio and television news commentary programs originating in Washington.

Though he is a dyed-in-the-wool and rock-ribbed Republican from way back, he puts Democratic guest stars on his show and lets them say what they please in answer to his pointed questions. He doesn't argue with them. But he often puts on his program Democrats who support his viewpoint.

So far this year he has had 10 Democrats on his 13-minute weekly shows, to seven Republicans and 11 other government officials or prominent private citizens.

Intelligent, independent voters think there should be more of this kind of informative discussion on both sides of the many controversial issues facing the country.

The old-time partisan debate based on the theory that one party is always right and the other always wrong is long gone. Both parties are hopelessly divided between conservatives and liberals. So party labels no longer have any meaning.

Buying the tapes, they carry the programs as public service newscasts. This is another reason why Keating has to keep them nonpartisan. If they were straight party line, they might have to be paid for as political broadcasts.

His shows move fast and aren't long speeches. The senator uses about half of his time at the beginning and end of his program to answer the most intelligent letters he has received from constituents during the previous week. He puts over his own ideas in these answers. The other half of his time is an interview with his guest.

Among the prominent Democrats he has had on his show recently are: Ambassador to India Chester Bowles on foreign aid; Sen. Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut on the Congo, Laos and Vietnam; Undersecretary of State Averell Harriman on the nuclear test ban negotiations in Moscow; new Undersecretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr.; Sen. Warren G. Magnuson of Washington State, chairman of the Commerce Committee which is now holding hearings on equal access to public facilities in the civil rights program.

FRANKFURT (AP) — Five-year-old John Squires of Grand Rapids drowned in Lake Michigan Tuesday during a family swimming outing at the municipal bathing beach. His body was recovered in 3½ feet of water.

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Riding in a cloud of dust behind a dump truck, Robert Macklem, 15, of nearby Harrison Township, rode his bicycle into the side of a 40-ton earth mover Tuesday and was killed. Macomb County Sheriff's deputies said the driver of the earth mover said he was trying to make a turn behind the truck at a road construction site and did not see the boy.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Community Facilities Administration announced Tuesday approval of grants totaling $687,000 for two Michigan communities under the accelerated public works program. Isabella will receive $163,000 for a $333,000 sanitary sewer system project, including a force main. ANN ARBOR — Intercollegiate athletics is the one activity most likely to give a university president gray hairs, according to Dr. Alexander G. Ruthven, president emeritus of the University of Michigan.

Dr. Ruthven, Michigan's president during the 22 years of its greatest growth (1929-1951), tells why in his autobiographical book "Naturalist In Two Worlds" (170 pages, $5), published by the University of Michigan Press.

"Intercollegiate athletic competitions inevitably become involved with educational standards, the hiring of athletes, and large capital investments for physical education," Dr. Ruthven explains.

"They arouse the emotions of the alumni, often to no good purpose. They attract a large public following interested only in the games as spectacles or as a source of profit and distort the true image of institutions of higher learning."

Well known as a zoologist before turning to university administration, Dr. Ruthven recalls that even then college sports were fast becoming big business whose pressures caused schools to subsidize athletes and juggle entrance and scholastic requirements. He took

Radio Telescope Records Radiation From The Stars

ANN ARBOR — Since it went into operation in late 1959, radio astronomers and other scientists at the University of Michigan have used the U-M 85-foot radio telescope to make several outstanding research accomplishments.

They have measured the temperatures of Saturn and of Mercury (especially difficult because of its proximity to the sun), and determined the plane—or location in space—of the magnetic fields of radio sources in several galaxies.

Light from celestial bodies is only part of the electromagnetic radiation they emit. Radio astronomers use another part of this radiation, the radio waves, to obtain a view of the universe that complements the optical astronomers'. The radio waves originate in the atomic and electronic actions in not celestial bodies.

"Although the radio astronomer can tell much about the composition, temperature and velocity of some sources," the report notes, "he cannot tell their distance from Earth."

"For nearly all distance measurements he must rely on the measurements of the optical astronomer is able to make."

It explains that radio astronomy serving the radio waves they emit resolving power, or the ability to "see" fine detail," the Research News points out.

"Research in radio astronomy consists of observing, recording, and analyzing electromagnetic energy that reaches the earth. The radio astronomer inevitably talks of 'seeing' an object in space, although he is actually manipulating a group of data points, a plot of radio intensities, or a stack of punched cards."

The Research News reports that "the first measurements of radio emission from Saturn were made at the U-M in 1960.

"Then in 1960 and 1961 a group of Michigan radio astronomers conclusively detected and measured radio waves from the planet Mercury." This was an especially difficult feat, it notes, "since that planet is so close to the Sun, whose radio emission tends to overpower that of Mercury."

The U-M group is now keeping a steady radio watch on Venus to see if slight variations in its radio emission can lead to an explanation of its hot surface revealed by radio measurements."

The Doctor Says: Tension Causes Colitis

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.

Are you one of the growing number of persons who has an irritable bowel? Some doctors call it mucous colitis or spastic colitis. But no matter what they call it, it can make you pretty uncomfortable.

Many a so-called stomachache or bout of griping pains is due to an irritable bowel. These pains shift around in the abdomen and tend to come in intermittent spasms. Some of these spasms may make you double-up with pain. Within a few minutes or a few hours you may pass some gas or a thin formed or watery stool and this always gives temporary relief.

Present objectives of the research program and guidelines for action.

Provide the college presidents and their key research men an opportunity to discuss the program among themselves.

—Afford an opportunity to the presidents to learn about the administration of the research fund first hand.

Speakers at the meeting, to be held Aug. 12 at Michigan State University, will include Gov. George Romney.

College Athletic Subsidies Are Criticized By Ruthven up the subject in his first address as president in 1929.

"In the years following I continued to observe signs of creeping professionalism in the nation's schools," the author recalls. "In spite of protestations of purity, evidence accumulated that students refused admission to Michigan were admitted to sister institutions, sometimes with substantial stipends."

"I even had the record of a young athlete who was admitted to a sister institution before graduating from high school. This lad played on the college teams for four years and failed each year to meet the published academic requirements."

"As competition increased, rivalry for prominent athletes increased," Dr. Ruthven writes. "Procurement efforts were stepped up, there was more pressure for 'athletic scholarships,' stadia were enlarged, and commercial interests entered the 'Bowl' business."

Cheeses Leading Dairy Food Gain

Gains in per capita consumption of cheese, ice cream, fluid nonfat and low fat milk, and strong acceptance of other dairy products, demonstrate the taste preference and interest in nutrition, says the annual statistical review, "How Americans Use Their Dairy Foods," published by National Dairy Council, Chicago.

Promotional activities, educational programs, and expanded research endeavors are credited with stabilizing the market for fluid milk. During 1962, the level of fluid milk consumption was practically unchanged from 1961, declining by only one quart per person.

Cheese sets the most notable gains almost every year. Per capita consumption reached an all-time high of 9.1 pounds in 1962, representing a .6 of a pound increase over the year before. This was the largest annual increase ever recorded in peacetime.

Non-fat and low fat milk were record setters. The 16.6 quarts of these products consumed per person in 1962 represented the highest level of use in 15 years.

Ice cream and other frozen dairy foods matched total consumption during 1962 of an all-time high of 20 quarts per person first recorded in 1959.

Rates of consumption of fluid cream, condensed milk, and dry whole milk were unchanged. Cottage cheese usage was down fractionally.

A general stability in consumption is reflected in the narrow movement of the whole milk equivalent declined by four pounds—from 640 to 636—between 1961 and 1962.

Three new records were established in milk production during 1962. Total milk production hit an all-time high of 125.8 billion pounds; production per cow increased to 7,370 pounds; and all this from 17.1 million cows, the smallest cow population in over a generation.

During 1962, families spent 18 cents of each food dollar for dairy foods.

Ford Makes Plans For Eveleth, Minn. Taconite Plant

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Ford Motor Co. and Oglebay Norton Co., of Cleveland, filed application Monday with the State of Minnesota for water rights and other permits for a proposed taconite plant near Eveleth, Minn.

The project would be Ford's first venture into a major mining operation in Minnesota. Taconite is a low-grade magnetic iron usually converted into high-grade pellets for blast furnace feed.

A spokesman for both companies said preliminary plans have been completed to produce up to two million tons of the ore.

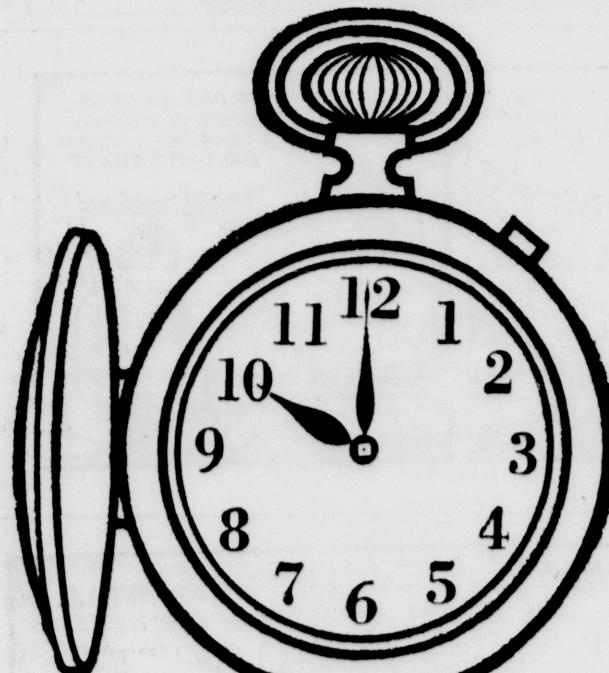

Traffic Killings Headed For High Mark In Michigan

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's soaring traffic accident rate, with 21 persons killed last weekend, points to a need for compulsory motor vehicle inspection, Secretary of State James M. Hare said Monday.

"We're in for a bloodbath this year," he said. "Everything points to it."

Hare said the accident rate has been especially high this year among young persons driving old cars. An inspection system would eliminate unsafe cars, he said. There is a need for more complete reporting of violations by drivers 16 and 17 years old, he added.

Grain Storage Plant Automated

CHELSEA (AP) — One of Michigan's first fully automated grain storage operations will be put to use this summer to help state wheat farmers preserve 100 million bushels of wheat.

Chelsea Milling Co.'s automated bins, still under final construction, will offer farmers added protection in preserving the quality of harvested grain.

The plant can speed the movement of grain from waiting trucks to bins, from one bin to another, to a drier, and finally to the milling plant, 100 yards away.

All this is accomplished with the push of a button.

Waiting Eliminated

Harvesting wheat can be a tricky job. If the farmer combines it too soon, it will have too high a moisture content. If he waits too long, and it rains, the wheat will begin to sprout, and will be almost valueless. Because all farmers in an area harvest their wheat at the same time, the grain elevator usually is deluged by grain hauling trucks, necessitating a long wait.

Box cars can be automatically loaded with wheat the company wants to ship out. The cars will be loaded on platform scales. When each car has the proper tonnage, the weighmaster can stop the loading process.

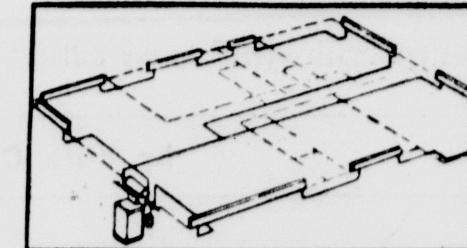

The new grain storage project is expected to increase job opportunities in Chelsea. It is not known how many more men will be needed, if any, outside the harvest time rush. But the expansion will open up a larger market and boost business in the area, thereby directly or indirectly creating more employment.

Ann Landers

He Has Tantrums

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I have been married four years. We have a two-year-old son. The problem is tantrums—not the boy's, but his father's.

If Woodrow can't find what he is looking for he pulls everything out of the drawer and leaves it on the floor. Several months ago he broke his toe kicking the furniture. This spring he sprained his wrist punching a dent in the car because it was out of gas.

Last week when Woodrow got hold of a shirt with a loose button he tore the collar off and left the shirt in the refrigerator so I wouldn't miss it.

Woodrow left for work this morning without speaking because I washed a theater stub in his shirt pocket. I don't know how to deal with his temper. Can you suggest something?—MOLLY

Dear Molly: Deal with him as you would any child who has tantrums. Take all sharp objects out of his hands and ignore him.

Woodrow needs professional help but if you suggested it he'd probably have another tantrum.

Dear Ann Landers: I read where the woman from Atlanta who was named "Secretary of the Year" said a good secretary limits her personal calls to necessities and emergencies. She put it this way: "Remember, when you are in the office your time belongs to your employer."

I've been working here for three months. I, too, believe a secretary's time belongs to her employer, but what can I do when an older woman wastes at least two hours of my day?

She babbles incessantly, gossiping and airing her family troubles, reporting in detail doings of her bridge club, drone on and on until I could scream. I don't want to tattle to the office manager yet this bore re-

Dear O: You are not going to change either set of grandparents so don't try.

And you can forget about getting the children to like both sets of grandparents. "The same." All people react to the treatment they receive and coaching from the sidelines is a waste of breath.

If you repeat this five or six times (using precisely the same words) she'll get the picture and leave you alone.

Dear Ann Landers: Please tell me how to maintain a healthy balance between the possessiveness of my husband's family and the indifferent attitude of my own parents.

The possessive in-laws live out of the state. They are hurt if we don't send our children to them for one month every summer. They send the kids gifts galore and phone long distance every week just to talk to them. Frankly they overdo it.

My parents are just the opposite. They live nearby, but we don't see much of them. They have never offered to sit with the kids or even taken them out for an ice cream cone.

I want our children to like both sets of grandparents the same. We hate for them to be "bought" on the one hand and ignored on

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The FBI says a Detroit man and his companion have been identified as the pair who pulled a $1,320 San Diego bank robbery last Friday. Charles L. Mayberry, 53, of Detroit and Fred L. Curtis, 31, of San Diego, were arrested in Yuma, Ariz., Saturday. The FBI said they traded cars at used car lots in three small towns during their 177-mile trip to Yuma in an attempt to hide their trail.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this

New Registration Starts At School

Registrations for students entering Gladstone Junior and Senior high schools for the first time are being taken at the Junior High School office. Due to construction of the new buildings the telephone service at the Junior High has been disrupted and calls are being taken at the superintendent's office at GA 5-6671.

Democratic Club Plans Rummage Sale

Planning was begun at Tuesday night's meeting of the Delta County Democratic Women's Club for their fall rummage sale which will be held Wednesday through Friday, August 21-23. Mrs. Ann Villeneuve was named chairman and volunteers were named to assist her and complete the plans which will include selecting collection chairmen for the various Delta County communities.

Mrs. Rodger Murray, club president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Elvira Vader, 11th Congressional District delegate, reported on the June meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee in Lansing. She outlined Democratic plans for party financing, a membership drive, civil rights action, proposed courses of action on the problems of districting for both state and national legislatures under the new constitution and the recent legislation adopted concerning redistricting.

House Bill 469 known as the "Precinct Delegate Emancipation Proclamation" changes the method of nominating and electing party precinct delegates and gives them greater authority in county party affairs. It was decided that future meetings will be devoted to further discussion of redistricting and the precinct delegates and their implications for the Democratic party.

Next meeting of the Club will be in September, time and place to be announced later and will include election of officers.

FASHION "STRIKE"

Feminine bowling enthusiasts will enjoy wearing lined cotton crotches, cut to resemble a skirt. They come with matching or contrasting tops in beautiful colors.

Need an extra cookie sheet when you are baking a big batch of cookies? Turn a jelly-roll pan upside down and use the bottom for baking the cookies.

The full coat and the slim coat vie for fall fashion honors. Tailored in a new dry-ore-night shade of blue frost, Original's double-breasted coat (left) of double-faced fleece, features raglan sleeves. Designed in mohair-wool souffle in strong sapphire blue, the new-width coat (center) from Monte-Sano & Pruzan has raglan and rounded sleeves and stand-up collar. The collar can be turned down. Softness of tweed and sharpness of color are featured in the Original's side-belted, panel-back coat (right). The thick, but lightweight imported fabric has great supple quality, indicated by the slim sleeves and petal collar. It comes in scarlet, green or eggplant, to complement nature's display of autumn color.

Lyle Utt, 42, Dies In Dakota

Lyle Utt, about 42, of Valley City, North Dakota, a former resident of Escanaba, died Tuesday in a hospital in that city. He entered the hospital on Saturday, July 20.

Mr. Utt and his family had moved to Valley City about 12 years ago. Prior to leaving he was proprietor of the Y-Tavern in Escanaba. In North Dakota he was employed as a representative for the Minneapolis Brewing Co.

During World War II Utt, who was a Staff Sergeant in the U. S. Army, was a prisoner of war. He was a member of a party of 1,800 prisoners on an aimless march of 800 miles from Stalag 8A at Gorlitz, near Breslau, Germany that ended in liberation at Horsinger, near Brunswick, Germany. The march took two months.

He was taken prisoner Dec. 18, 1944 in Luxembourg when the Germans staged their last major counteroffensive on the western front, and was liberated April 18, 1945.

Among survivors are his wife, the former Marianne McCarthy of Escanaba; five children, Michael, 20, Robert, 15, Laura, 17, Lou Ann, 10, and Linda, 6, all at home; and his father, Percy Utt of Escanaba.

Mr. Utt was raised in Escanaba and had attended St. Anne's School and was a graduate of the Escanaba High School, Class of 1938.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday morning from St. Catherine's Church in Valley City.

The body will be brought to Escanaba for burial Monday morning.

Vote Sept. 9:

Propose Sinking Fund For Schools

Voters will be asked to approve a sinking fund to finance school building and to okay equalizing the school debt in the Escanaba Area Public Schools district at an election to be held on Sept. 9.

Action to place the questions before the voters was taken at a meeting of the board of education last night.

Dr. William Hemes, board president, conducted the meeting at which several interested persons were heard by the board in urging action toward solution of elementary school building problems.

Among them was Mrs. Robert Ham, Franklin School PTA, who said the replacement of the old Franklin School building should be given priority; and Harold Gasman of the Delta County Taxpayers Committee, who said the proposed sinking fund is in line with the thinking of the Committee.

The proposals are:

SINKING FUND — A levy of 2 mills for 5 years to create a building and site sinking fund. On the present valuation of approximately $50 million dollars the fund would total about $500,000. None of the levy would have to be used to pay interest charges, as would be necessary with a bond issue.

First priority would be given

The combined band of 95 pieces will present a program that will include outstanding music from hit shows and musical comedies, plus marches and other favorites.

Mild Weather To Continue Here

Near normal temperatures for the next five days is the outlook for Upper Michigan, reports the U. S. Weather Bureau. There is likely to be a half inch of rainfall in scattered showers on Monday.

Escanaba will have clearing skies tonight. Thursday will be partly cloudy with a high of 75 near the lake to 80 a few miles inland. The outlook for Friday is partly cloudy and mild.

Bass Are Biting In Ogontz Bay

Trout fishing on the Escanaba River, below Boney Falls, was good the past weekend with fly fishermen having the best luck during the evening hours.

Bass fishing continues good in Ogontz Bay area with several limit catches taken during the week. Also good success in West Wilsey Bay, at the head of Big Bay de Noc, mouth of the Fishdam Rivers and in Butler's Beach area.

Northern pike fishing has slowed down somewhat the past week but still continues favorable in the Escanaba Yacht Harbor area. Some are also being taken off Butler's Island, at the head of Big Bay de Noc, mouth of the Fishdam Rivers and in Butler's Beach area. Chicago, Lyman and Jackpine Lakes provide fair success.

Perch fishing is still the mainstay of the sport fishing scene. Nice-sized ones are being taken off Squaw Point Light, Butler's Island, Masonville and Stonington. Also good fishing provided at the Escanaba Yacht Harbor and Municipal Dock, south of Gardien near South River Bay and in the vicinity of St. Vital's Island.

Some brook trout taken in the early morning hours on dry flies in the Escanaba River, west of Rock, and on the Sawmill Creek west of Turin. In the Ishpeming area the best spot for browns and brooks is the Escanaba River with some browns also being taken from the Dead River Basin.

Good rainbow success had in AuTrain Basin from the springholes. In spite of hot weather and low stream levels, some brook trout success reported on AuTrain River (down from the power house), in Slapneck, Johnson, Black and Dexter creeks, and the East and West branches of the Whitefish River.

Autrain Basin still producing bass with spoons with pork rind as well as by trolling night crawlers in the deep holes.

Property owners only may vote on the assumption of debt.

Because it is too late to spread the levy on the 1963 rolls, the mileage proposals would not be levied until next year.

In other business the board of education received and approved a preliminary report by Supt. Walter Bright on pupil placement in the coming school year.

Astronauts Get New Narrator

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. astronauts are getting a new and apparently softer voice on Sept. 1.

Former newspaperman Paul Haney will replace Lt. Col. John A. Powers, who as the narrator in Mercury control coined the phrase heard around the world: "Everything is A-OK."

Following weeks of rumors, Robert Gilruth, director of the Manned Spacecraft Center at Houston, announced Tuesday night that Powers was definitely out as the center's public affairs director.

"We are aware that Shorty has been a controversial figure and that there has been controversy that he had been in the middle of and this seems like the proper time for reassignment," Gilruth said.

Powers becomes an assistant to Gilruth, while Haney, 35, becomes the center's public affairs chief.

Haney, married and the father of four children, is a burly 6-footer. He is quiet and careful with his words.

Payload Gathers Data From Space

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Scientists are studying data radioed from a payload which raced 8,000 miles into space to study the ionosphere.

The probe, hurled upward by a Blue Scout rocket, relayed nearly four hours of excellent signals before burning up as planned during atmospheric re-entry above the Indian Ocean Tuesday.

Bark River Auxiliary Meeting

The Rheume Knauf Auxiliary will meet at Andy's Club at 8 p. m. Thursday, Aug. 1. It is a regular session.

Water Service Problems Told

The financing of larger mains for the service of water users in Ford River was discussed at a meeting held in the Township Hall last evening. Supervisor Phil A. Miron reviewed the history of the water utility and reported on income and expenses in connection with its operation.

About 200 water customers are served, and discussion indicated it is not likely the people would bond the township for the improvement. The township has a population of about 1,400.

To incorporate the area as a village or to create a fire hydrant district was felt to be less desirable or feasible than to have the Township Water Board borrow from private sources to finance the project. This could be done under authority of Section 5 of Public Act 10 of 1949. The loans would be retired from water system revenues.

Should financing not be arranged by the majority of customers, the line might be shortened at both ends. Those customers who did not want to pay for the improvement, estimated to be $150 to $200, would have to have wells drilled as would those at either end of the line if the service must be curtailed.

The installation of larger mains should be done now because it will prove more expensive after highway work now in progress is completed, it was pointed out.

Another meeting with water users will be held within a week in a further discussion of the problem.

"but for the Grace . . . THERE GO!"

Grace . . . THERE GO!"

You've often thought that . . . even said it . . . at the sight of a badly smashed car, the sound of an ambulance siren, the report of a traffic death.

These are dramatic reminders of the tragic part of our auto accident problem . . . of more than 108,000 persons injured and nearly 1,600 killed in Michigan last year, and of an even greater rate of injury and death this year to date.

The less-dramatic accidents aren't so likely to arouse this feeling of deep concern . . . but they should.

These are the broad, and fast-growing, base of the problem. Our present rate of 260,000 accidents a year involves nearly four damaged cars for every injury, 250 for every death . . . and in many of these the only difference between a bent fender and a funeral is just a split second.

Have you been around Royce Park lately in the evenings? Have you heard an unusual amount of screaming, applauding and horn-blowing? If you haven't, it might be worth your time to go over and see what's happening. If you've heard the din and haven't been able to get over to see what's going on, you've been listening to the girl's softball sessions, Escanaba's latest promotion in the sports program.

It all started early this spring when the girls got a few teams together and got a schedule going. Then more teams joined, and the competition became tougher. At first the girls' games went quite unnoticed, until some people, with nothing more to do, went to the games. Now you can't keep them away. Paul Vardigan of the city athletic program said yesterday that the girls' games are drawing as many fans as the city league softball games.

The real attraction at girls' softball games, besides girl-watching, is the amount of emotion emitted during the contest. These girls play for "blood." If they win they are so happy they cry. If they lose they cry. The emotion is the thing. This is one of the factors which has to be considered for interscholastic sports in high school. Most states don't allow girls' interscholastic sports because it all becomes such an emotional thing. One of the biggest attractions in Iowa in the spring in the State High School Girls' Basketball Tournament. They pack the fieldhouse for every single game. The crowds even find themselves getting "all shook up" at these games.

This is not the first time that girls' softball teams have been organized in Escanaba, tho. As a matter of fact, Escanaba was noted about 15 years ago for its excellent teams. The chief promoter of the teams then was Clifford Frasher. Some of the girls from those teams 15 years ago are straying over to the Royce ball park and joining up with the teams.

Parma Smith was the chief organizer of the new girls' league in Escanaba. She was elected president of the association for this year. Games are played at Webster Park Monday night, at Royce Park on Wednesday and Thursday night, and at Memorial Field on Sunday night.

After three more weeks of league play a double elimination tournament will be held August 35-31. Trophies will be given to the winner and runner-up. The State Bank of Escanaba is currently the league leader with 11 straight victories.

All-Star Players Hold Pro Contracts

CHICAGO (AP)—When the All-Stars and Green Bay Packers meet in football's midsummer classic Friday night, one or more of the collegians will have their names inscribed in a growing book of memories.

Year after year since the game was inaugurated in 1934, youngsters from college use the game as a stepping stone to greatness in the professional ranks.

Every member of this year's 50-man squad will go to a pro camp, 40 to the National Football League and 10 to the American League. Some will fail to make the pros, some will become journeymen players and a few will achieve the distinction of playing for a championship team and will return to face future All-Star teams in Soldier Field.

It was in 1937 when the All-Stars defeated Green Bay 6-0. A young man named Sammy Baugh threw a 22-yard pass to Gaynell Tinsley who dashed the remaining 25 yards for the game's only score.

The following year Cecil Isbell and Johnny Kovatch combined on a 39-yard touchdown pass to get the All-Stars rolling towards a 28-16 triumph over Washington.

Two years later, Isbell returned as a member of the Green Bay Packers. He threw three touchdown passes, two to Don Hutson, and guided the Packers to a 45-28 victory.

It was in 1943 when Otto Graham, present coach of the All-Stars had his moment of glory. Graham intercepted one of Baugh's passes and ran 97 yards for a touchdown in a game which saw the All-Stars dump Washington 27-7.

Finals Thursday In BR Tourney

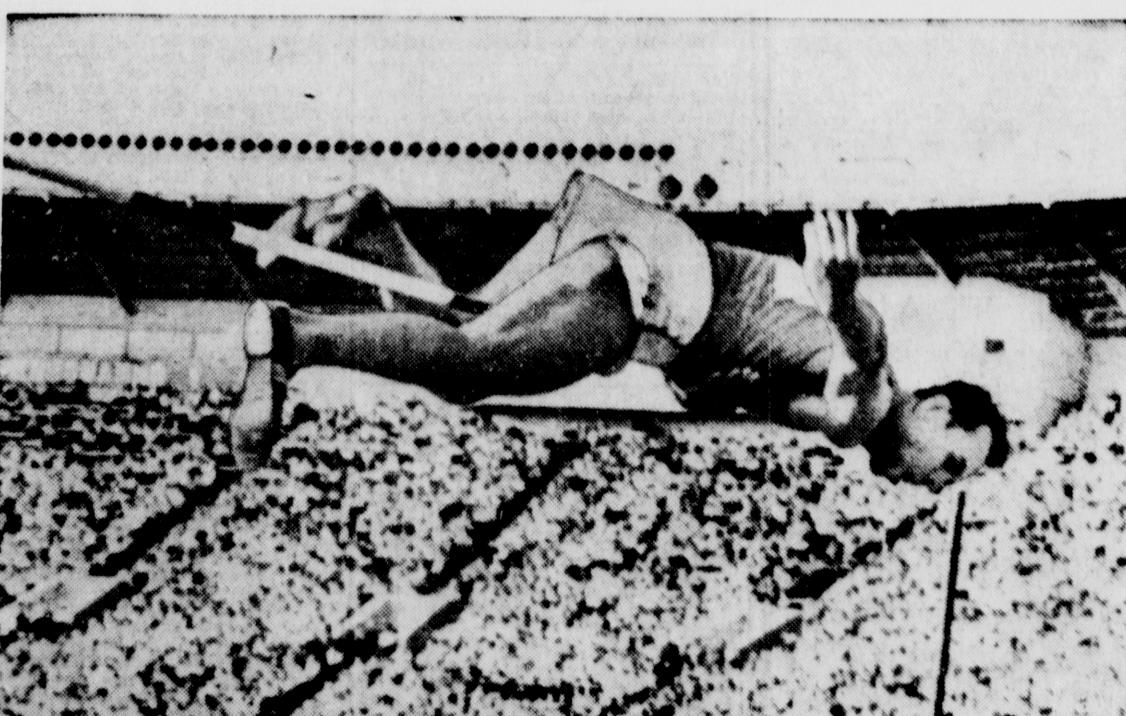

PORT HURON (AP)—Two once-beaten teams, Northwest Detroit and Algonac, were scheduled to meet today to decide who will face unbeaten Garden City West in the finals of the state Babe Ruth baseball tournament.

Garden City won its third straight tournament game Tuesday, 2-1 over Algonac. After Algonac's Dave Jacques pitched hitless ball for five innings, Garden City pushed across two runs in the sixth on four hits. Jacques homered in the third for Algonac's only run. Garden City's Paul Kightlinger gave up only three hits.

Northwest Detroit mounted a 13-hit attack and ousted the Ypsilanti Americans 9-3 as Mike Alexander scattered five Ypsilanti hits. Northwest Detroit scored two runs in the third and three in the fourth.

The winner of today's game meets Garden City Thursday. The winner of that contest will play in the regional tournament at Eau Claire, Wis., Aug. 6.

Sonny Liston Called Fighter Of Month By Ring Magazine

NEW YORK (AP)—Art Heyman, the most sought-after college basketball player in the country, has come to terms with the team that needs him the most—New York's lowly Knicks of the National Basketball Association.

"I only hope I can live up to their expectations," the 6-foot-5 Heyman said Tuesday after signing a two-year contract with New York coach Eddie Donovan, who personally scouted and signed the Duke All-American.

It was in 1943 when Otto Graham, present coach of the All-Stars had his moment of glory. Graham intercepted one of Baugh's passes and ran 97 yards for a touchdown in a game which saw the All-Stars dump Washington 27-7.

Playing ball is a challenge, but I don't mind," Heyman said by telephone from Duke, where he is taking summer courses.

Heyman was the sparkplug as Duke reached the semifinals of the NCAA championships last season. He was named the outstanding player in that tourney, in the annual East-West game and was selected AP's Player of the Year. He scored 747 points for an average of 24.9 game last season.

Heyman was a first-round draft choice of the Knicks, who had the poorest record in the NBA last season and so got first pick.

Mets Win 5-1

New York Avois No. 23, Trims Top-Ranked Club

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Mets, who hold a first mortgage on the brink of disaster, marched back from the precipice today after ending their 22-game losing streak on the road.

Tracy Stallard kept the Mets from setting an all-time record for consecutive losses away from home by spinning a four-hitter that beat Los Angeles 5-1 Tuesday night and trimmed the Dodgers' National League lead to 3½ games over San Francisco.

Willie Mays and Willie McCovey supplied the firepower for a 5-0 Giants victory over Philadelphia. It was the ninth straight triumph for the San Franciscans, who were 10 games behind Los Angeles 10 days ago.

Stallard served up Roger Maris' 61st homer and was on the mound when the Mets set a modern record for road losses by dropping their 20th straight away from the Polo Grounds.

Basketball Camp Set At Northern

MARQUETTE — A one-week basketball camp for junior and senior high school boys between the ages of 12 and 17 will be sponsored by Northern Michigan University Aug. 11-17.

Sponsored in cooperation with Northern's Public Services Division, the clinic will be directed by Stan Albeck, NMU cage mentor since 1957. In six years at Northern, Albeck has compiled a record of 102 wins and 36 losses.

Four of his Northern teams have won the Michigan championship sponsored by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

According to Albeck, the basketball camp, which has been approved by the Michigan High School Athletic Association, will place emphasis on conditioning, fundamentals and team play. A certificate of merit will be awarded to each individual upon completion of the camp.

Art Mahaffey Gets Injured Right Ankle, Out For 6-8 Weeks

SAN FRANCISCO AP—Philadelphia pitcher Art Mahaffey, a 19-game winner last year, suffered a severe right ankle injury in a freak accident Tuesday night and will be lost to the club from four to eight weeks.

Preparing to make his first pitch as a reliever in the seventh inning against the Giants, Mahaffey caught his spikes in the pitching rubber and fell.

Carried from the field on a stretcher, the hurler was hospitalized. X rays showed no fracture. Physicians said he suffered a dislocated peroneal tendon, and put the ankle in a cast. He will return to Philadelphia today for further treatment.

US Team Selected For Tennis Match In Great Britain

CLEVELAND (AP) — Darlene Hard and Billie Jean Moffitt, both of Long Beach, Calif., and veterans of Wightman Cup campaigns, head a five-member U.S. team which will compete against Great Britain in the 35th renewal of the tennis classic Aug. 10-11.

Joining them for the matches at the Cleveland Skating Club will be a third Californian, Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica; Nancy Richey of Dallas, Tex., and Donna Floyd Fales of New York.

The selections were announced Tuesday by Margaret duPont of Wilmington, Del., captain of the U.S. team.

But the 25-year-old right-hander, the winner when the Mets last won on the road June 15, may never have been sharper than on Tuesday. He allowed only two runners beyond second base in sending the front-runners down to their seventh defeat in 10 games.

The victory left the Mets tied in the record book with the Pittsburgh team of 1890 at 22 road losses.

Third-place St. Louis closed to within four games of the Dodgers by beating Cincinnati 7-5 as Ernie Broglio checked the Reds on one run in 6 1-3 innings of relief work. Milwaukee bombed the Chicago Cubs 9-2 and Pittsburgh walloped Houston 8-1.

The American League-leading New York Yankees maintained their eight-game bulge by downing Kansas City 6-2, the Chicago White Sox defeated Washington 5-1. Baltimore drubbed Detroit 9-0. Minnesota took Boston 6-3 and the Los Angeles Angels edged Cleveland 6-4 in 10 innings.

The Mets, after losing 10 straight on the current road trip, collected 14 hits against the Dodgers in support of Stallard, who struck out six and walked one in bringing his record to 4-9. Ken McMullen's Homer spoiled his shutout. Frank Thomas hit his ninth Homer, off loser Bob Miller, 7-7.

Mays slammed two doubles and a single and McCovey hit his 31st Homer, a three-run shot, to back up the shutout pitching of Billy O'Dell. O'Dell, nicked for 11 Philadelphia hits, posted his first victory since June 22 while boosting his record to 11-6. McCovey regained the majors' home run lead when he connected against Ray Culp, 10-9.

Broglio, 11-7, struck out seven in his relief stint. Bill White and Charley James homered for the Cardinals, whose three-run fifth tagged Joe Nuxhall, 8-5, with the loss.

Not acting very angelic, Jimmy Piersall argues with two umpires after being called out on strikes in the 9th inning in the second game between Boston and the LA Angels Sunday. Third base umpire, Johnny Stevens in the foreground, later fell to the ground. Yesterday Piersall, 33, only two days an Angel, was fined $250 for his actions and suspended from play until Aug. 2. United States Track Team Meets Germany This Week

HANNOVER, Germany (AP)—At least two world records could be in danger today and Thursday as the United States track and field team meets a German squad in the third stop on its four-stop European tour.

The Americans, their spirits much improved after last week's smashing victory over Poland, expect to win 16 or 17 of the 21 events and are aiming for world marks in both the 400 meters and the 1,600-meter relay.

Henry Carr of Arizona State, who ran 200 meters in the squeaker over Russia and the rout of Poland, was moved up to the 400 by coach Payton Jordan as the result of his 44.8 seconds clocking during the relay against the Russians. His Arizona State teammate, Ulis Williams, will pass up the 400 to anchor a 1,600 relay quartet that also includes Rex Cawley, Lester Milburn and Carr.

Henry Hank of Detroit was fifth-ranked in the light heavyweight division, and Auburn Copeland of Flint was ranked third in the junior lightweight class.

against their West German counterparts at Brunswick Tuesday night and took their third straight lopsided defeat, 71-45, while winning only three of the 11 events.

The only American winners were Edith McGuire of Tennessee State, with 11.6 seconds in the 100 meters; Willy White of Chicago, with 20 feet, 9½ inches in the broad jump; and Elizabeth Montgomery of Cleveland, with 5-7½ in the high jump.

Building Suburbs Within The City

This is one of eight patio houses built in Chicago on a 170 x 145-foot lot replacing old single-family dwelling.

Man's oldest form of urban housing — a house built around an open space (called an atrium by the Romans) — is being revived in modified form as a possible solution to urban renewal problems. In a patio, or atrium, house, front, rear and side yards are consolidated into one garden court which is bordered by rooms and walls. The outdoor and indoor areas become one secluded space for living, providing privacy without giving up openness. One advocate of the patio house is William K. Wittausch, manager of housing research at Stanford Institute. Sketch of a patio neighborhood, right, is based on his idea, as presented by the Urban Land Institute. Patio houses have the same living space but take only half the land needed by conventional houses and cost one-third less to build.

As diagram, top, shows, patio homes maintain almost the same population density as narrow, two-story row houses.

Fence Off That Neighbor's Yard

AP Newsfeatures

Most people want privacy, even when they have only a tiny plot of ground surrounding their home.

"We love our house, but our neighbor's backyard looks like a junk heap," writes a woman, "and everytime we sit with friends on our lawn, she has her wash blowing in our faces. My husband says it would cost too much to screen their yard out with trees, as we would need to get some six feet or taller if we'd make a hedge. Is there a better solution?"

Wooden fences do not need to look like hate walls. An attractive basket weave style fence made with wide boards and 2 by 4s woven through vertically could be pretty, and you could plant a few fast-growing trees in strategic spots to soften the look. Louvered designs with the boards placed in a vertical position have become popular in recent years. It is a good fence where you do not wish to shut out cool breezes, but would still like privacy. The same louver idea may be worked out horizontally.

Some people like woven fences, made of saplings wired together, but neighbors sometimes resent them.

If you want to have a fence higher than funds permit for materials, you could place horizontal boards on uprights, starting the boards about two feet above the ground. Foliage could be planted below taking up the slack left by the space and softening the lines of it. If you adopt this method, consider getting some of the inexpensive tiny evergreens in bulk to use as a border.

Another outdoor problem is this one:

"We'd like to do a little patio on the side of our house. My husband says he doesn't mind doing the work, and could do it in the fall. But just about anything worthwhile we want to do seems expensive. Bricks and flagstone would make the cost prohibitive as we would need to put a cement foundation down first. A wood deck wouldn't go with our fieldstone house," writes a new homeowner.

A cement foundation alone could do the trick as one couple discovered. When he had poured the cement, he decided to try an experiment base on an Oriental idea he had seen done with sand in a yard. He took a rake and threaded a wavelike pattern down the almost-dry length of the concrete, matching the entire area into a uniform series of the waves. He decided not to use flagstone, and as a matter of fact decorated the little patio in an Oriental theme with wind-chimes hanging from house over-

China Reds May Risk Reckless Action In Asia

By WILLIAM RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

There are ominous signs that the Red Chinese, angry and frustrated because of Premier Khrushchev's policies of peaceful coexistence, are hell-bent for reckless action in Asia. They may even be toying with the idea of risking renewed war in Korea.

The Red Chinese attitude, reflected in recent statements by Asian Communist leaders, appears to be a direct result of the Soviet-British-U.S. agreement to discontinue all nuclear tests except those underground.

The ambushing of U.S. soldiers in South Korea looked anything but accidental. The Red Chinese are making noises indicating they want to apply the heat once again in that area.

Nehru Alerts People

In Southeast Asia, Peking indicates an impatience to clean up the situation in Indochina and drive the West and its influence out of South Viet Nam and Laos. The war in Viet Nam may get hotter.

Indian Prime Minister Nehru has warned his people to be ready for any eventuality, as if expecting that a Red Chinese buildup along India's borders may be the prelude to new warlike pressures.

Peking is getting all-out support from the North Korean Communists in the argument with Moscow about how world communism should advance. The Soviets seem to have lost all control over the North Koreans. This may be true, too, in smoldering Indochina.

Backed by the Chinese, North Korean Communist leaders are sounding as truculent as they did before an armistice halted the Korean action 10 years ago.

War Of "Liberation"

Recently a high-ranking North Korean Communist toured Red China. On his return last week to Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, he said in a speech that "one half of our territory (meaning South Korea) is under the occupation of the U.S. imperialists and

Father, 48, Drowns In Rabbit Bay As He Aids Daughter

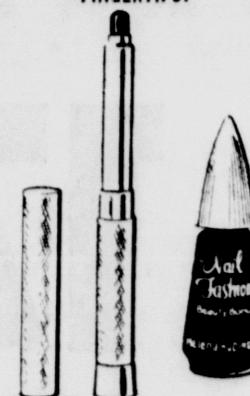

HOUGHTON (AP)—A man trying to aid his teen-aged daughter drowned Monday when his row boat overturned in Rabbit Bay off Lake Superior, some 12 miles east of Houghton.

Houghton County sheriff's officers identified the victim as Elmer Houghton, 48, of Saline. Houghton set out in his boat to help his daughter, Barbara, 16, whose canoe began drifting as a sudden wind developed. Houghton reached her canoe and was about to tow it 300 feet back to shore when his craft tipped over, deputies said.

Friends on shore heard Barbara's shouts for help and went to her rescue. She was still in the canoe, deputies said. Houghton's body was recovered by an unidentified friend.
